

Biography of Daniel T. Huang, Esq.

Daniel T. Huang has been practicing law since 1996. He is a certified specialist in immigration and nationality law with the California State Bar. A graduate of Loyola Law School, Daniel is a long time member of the Immigration Section Executive Committee of the Los Angeles County Bar Association. He served as the Chair of the Immigration Section from 2016-2017. Over the years, Daniel has held various liaison positions representing the Los Angeles immigration legal community with the U.S. Customs and Border Protection, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, USCIS California Service Center, and the U.S. State Department. In the past several years, Daniel has organized annual binational conferences with the Colegio de La Frontera Norte in Tijuana, Mexico, featuring government and private stakeholders to address issues related to border enforcement, asylum seekers, and integration of deportees.

Daniel has served as a panel speaker and organizer for many LACBA sponsored events on investment-based visas, employment-based immigration, non-immigrant work visas, family-based immigration, immigration-related federal litigation, border issues, and consular processing.

Daniel frequently participates in volunteer activities with the Immigration Project and other service providers. He has written and published articles related to U.S. immigration in the English, Chinese, and Spanish languages.

Bar Admissions

California

Association Membership and activities

- Immigration Section of the Los Angeles County Bar Association ("LACBA")
- American Immigration Lawyers Association ("AILA") [Former consular liaison, National Day of Action participant]
- The Federal Bar, Member
- The National Lawyers Guild [Steering committee member of the Immigration Project]

Education

Loyola Law School Los Angeles, J.D. 1996

University of California Irvine, Economics, 1992