

BIO TAMILA C. JENSEN, ESQ.

Ms. Jensen is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley and earned her law degree from the University of California at Davis School of Law. She recently earned an LLM in Transnational Commercial Practice, Lazarski University, Poland. Ms. Jensen is a past president of San Fernando Valley Bar Association and Neighborhood Legal Services Los Angeles where she remains on the board of directors. Ms. Jensen taught at Indiana University School of Business. She also taught contract law at the School of Law, Debrechen, Hungary and real estate law at the European School of Law and Economics, Pristina Kosovo, through the Center for International Legal Studies. The focus of her practice is elder law and real property. Ms. Jensen volunteers as an arbitrator at the Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) international moot court arbitration competition which includes law students from around the world. She is a member of the Bench Bar Coalition among other volunteer service activities. She is a certified mediator and participates as a settlement officer in several volunteer mediation and arbitration programs through LACBA and other providers. Ms. Jensen is a long time member of the Trusts and Estates Section and Appellate Section of LACBA. Ms. Jensen has authored many articles including the recent “Scalia’s Lasting Legacy: Debating the Constitution - The Living Constitution,” Valley Lawyer, May 2016.