AWARD-WINNING LOS ANGELES LAWYER MAGAZINE TRANSITIONS TO DIGITAL PUBLICATION

Los Angeles, California – May 5, 2021 – The Los Angeles County Bar Association (LACBA) is pleased to announce the release of the digital edition of Los Angeles Lawyer magazine. The award-winning publication will transition to a digital-only magazine in response to the growing consumer demand for an interactive reading experience, increased engagement, and environmentally friendly publishing, among others. The first digital publication will launch with the ever-popular May 2021 Entertainment Law issue. LACBA members and non-members will not only have the opportunity to access the current digital issue but also will be able to revisit any previously published versions through the Los Angeles Lawyer web page or LACBA website.

Los Angeles Lawyer magazine was created for members of LACBA over three decades ago to provide users with peer-reviewed articles containing substantive legal information and issues. This mission will remain unabated; LACBA is committed to giving each user a superior level of valuable content and the tools to create their own user experience, which will now be fully optimized for mobile viewing. The digital-only edition will continue to allow members to receive MCLE credits and keep up to date with important changes in federal and state legislation, as well as court procedure. Other topics, such as technological improvements to enhance a lawyer's tool kit, pertinent book and film reviews, and other trending local, regional, or national events of legal interest, will be highlighted throughout the pages of the online issues of Los Angeles Lawyer.

In order to properly access the digital-only publication, LACBA encourages members and non-members to verify that the correct email address is recorded properly within their user account.
