“At’s such an exciting time to be a LACBA member. I am proud of the way the organization and current President Ronald F. Brot responded to an unexpected pandemic. Ron’s work to grow LACBA’s membership over the past year has been unprecedented. He spearheaded the addition of the Privacy and Cybersecurity, and Cannabis Sections, as well as the Lawyer Well-Being Project, which assists lawyers facing alcohol abuse, substance abuse, or mental and emotional issues,” said Ms. Jensen, founder of the Law Offices of Tamila C. Jensen. “There is always work to be done running one of the largest voluntary associations in the nation, and I look forward to the challenges and opportunities,” she added.

LACBA continues to serve attorneys, judges, and other legal professionals through 27 sections, committees, networking events, live and on-demand CLE programs, and pro bono opportunities, as well as public service and informational resources. The organization, guided by Los Angeles County Presiding Judge Kevin Brazile, has been at the forefront of digital resources, through its website and mobile app, during the world’s global COVID-19 pandemic.
