The Program

Moderator Herb Fox introduced panelists Ellen Pansky, Marc Poster, and Mark Alan Hart, and described the written program materials, which included a legal outline of appellate ethical issues that was first created in 2000 and which had been updated to the present.

For the remainder of the program, the moderator and panelists discussed five appellate ethics hypotheticals – involving both civil and criminal appellate practice – set forth in the program materials, and they responded to questions from program attendees.

Approved on December __, 2016
