

FRANCIS LYALL

Francis Lyall, now Emeritus Professor of Public Law of the University of Aberdeen, Scotland, served from 1974 to 2010. Professor Lyall is Board Member of the International Institute of Space Law and a Member of the International Academy of Astronautics. Francis Lyall is the author of numerous articles on a wide range of subjects, has published seven academic books, was co-author of another book, and was co-editor of an academic collection on Space Law. Francis Lyall also published five crime novels and edited nine collections of science fiction (seven by Clifford D. Simak and two by James Blish).